

The Top Five Things Every Child Should Be Able To Say!

Psalm 127, 128. Every child is precious in the sight of the Lord. Every child ought to be precious in the sight of his or her parent. Unfortunately, this is not always the case. Biblically, every child should be able to say the following 5 things.

Statement # 1- _____ My parents have me in their hearts (Malachi 4:6).
What does this involve?

Statement # 2- _____ My parents not only love me, they love each other (Ephesians 5:21-33).
The blessings of a growing, fresh, loving marriage

Statement # 3- _____ My parents are teaching the true meaning of success (Psalm 143:10).

Statement # 4- _____ My parents insist on my obedience because they value and cherish me (Proverbs 3:11-12).

Statement # 5- _____ My parents are glad the Lord brought me to them (Genesis 33:5).
